The Assistant Surgeon in Charge
Govt. Isolation Hospital

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 8614/406 dated 20. 12. 32, I beg to enclose herewith a copy of a memorandum from the accountant general Madras, and to state that my increment will be postponed by a period of six months as account of my being treated as on probation for six months from 1-4-32. As I am not confirmed only on account of the ban imposed by the Government of India, and as my service will count for increment from the beginning if I am treated as provisional (officiating), I shall be grateful if the Honorable Resident be pleased to appoint me as a provisional (officiating) assistant Surgeon with effect from 1-4-32 in order to enable me to count my service for increment from that date. This will enable me to get my increment of Rs 15/- from 1-4-33

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient Servant
